The petitioner has preferred this writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India whereby the petitioner has prayed for directing the respondents to consider and appoint the petitioner on compassionate ground. The petitioner's case is that his father was working as Attendant under respondent No.3 and his father while serving under respondent No.1 had expired on 31-1-98. The petitioner had submitted an application for appointment on compassionate ground before respondent No.1 vide letter dated 26-3-1998. But, respondent No.1 has not taken any action on the application of the petitioner and kept the same pending without any reasonable ground. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that respondent No.1 has issued appointment orders in respect of 31 persons on compassionate ground. Counsel further submitted that the petitioner may be allowed to make a representation to respondents 1 & 2 and respondents 1 & 2 may be directed to decide the representation of the petitioner to which the learned counsel for respondent No.3 has no objection. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is allowed to make a detailed representation raising all his grievances to respondents 1&2 within a period of 10 days from today and in turn,
